

Wilkinson's Principles for Science

Our vision is to use the 7 wonders of Science to inspire the children with awe and wonder.

We love Science when...

We go outside of the classroom to learn.

We are exploring the world.

We are curious and ask new questions.

We discover things we didn't know about the world

We are trying our own ideas and making decisions.

We are working together.

It is hands on.

